

Application for New or Transfer of Ownership or Change of particulars of Recreational Ships 15 metres in length and over

Queensland Government
Maritime Safety Queensland

Applicants for recreational ship registration, transfer of recreational ship registration or change of recreational ship particulars for a ship 15 metres in length overall (LOA *) and over are required to provide additional information to that shown on the 'Recreational Ship Registration Application' (form F3525_ES), 'Recreational Ship Registration Transfer Application' (form F3521_ES) and the 'Change of Recreational Ship Particulars Notification' (form F3527_ES).

Please indicate which application you are making:

recreational ship registration

transfer of recreational ship registration

change of recreational ship particulars

What is the length overall (LOA *) of your ship? • m

* LOA means, for a ship that has previously been registered commercially, the last assigned commercial registration length. For all other ships it means the distance from the foremost part of the hull to the aftermost part of the full of the boat. This excludes removable parts which can be detached in a non-destructive manner and without affecting the structural reliability of the boat, for example outboard motors, swimming platforms, bowsprits, fittings or attachments.

Please complete the following details and include with your application. Please print clearly.

Full name of registered operator/s

Has the vessel ever been registered as a commercial vessel in this or another state or country?

Yes Please provide details below No Unknown

Provide a brief description of the ship and attach a photograph that shows the whole of the ship.

Applications must be forwarded to a Maritime Safety Queensland Regional Office (see page 2 for a list of offices) for endorsement. Applications cannot be processed by Queensland Transport Customer Service Centres without Maritime Safety Queensland endorsement.
